

Find 10 Ways You Use Sheep Every Day

- 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
 - 4.
 - 5.
 - 6.
 - 7.
 - 8.
 - 9.
 - 10.
- Sheep are nature's gift to the environment.
 - They are very efficient converters of plant material into meat, milk and wool.
 - Sheep have been domesticated longer than any other animals.
 - In Canada, meat from sheep is called lamb.
 - In the world today, more sheep meat is consumed than any other meat.
 - Sheep are very efficient grazing animals and live in every part of the world.
 - They graze weeds and brush, so maintain our grasslands in a healthy state.

Sheep Products Have Many Uses

Alberta Lamb...

you've got great taste!

Delicious & nutritious meat

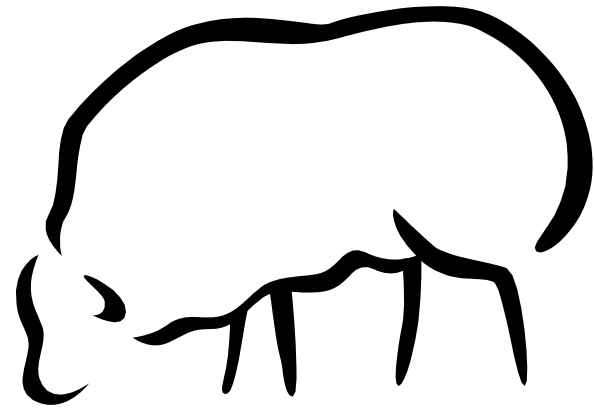

- roasts, chops, kebobs, burgers

From hide & wool

Baseballs, lanolin, clothing, tennis balls, drum heads, yarns, art brushes, sports equipment, carpet, fabrics, insulation, glue, asphalt binder, textiles, ointment base, footwear, paint & plaster binder, upholstery, felt.

From fats & fatty acids

Explosives, solvents, chewing gum, paints, cosmetics, rennet for cheese, industrial oils & lubricants, dog food, margarine, ceramics, medicines, show polish, dish soap, tires, paraffin, chicken feed, biodegradable detergents, antifreeze, crayons, floor wax, chemicals, rubber products, insecticides, candles, herbicides, shaving cream, shampoo & conditioner, creams & lotions.

From bones, horns and hooves

Syringes, gelatin desserts, piano keys, marshmallow, pet food, charcoal pencils, adhesive tape, combs & toothbrushes, buttons, bone jewelry, abrasives, emery boards & cloth, ice cream, laminated wood products, handles, bone china, wallpaper & paste, steel ball bearings, malts & shakes, fertilizer, shampoo & conditioner, photographic film, dice, Cellophane wrap & tape.

From intestines

Sausage casings, instrument strings, surgical sutures, tennis racquet strings.

From Manure

Nitrogen fertilizer, potash, phosphorus, minerals