

Following a very successful and upbeat symposium, the zone meetings have also been very positive and encouraging. Sheep producers have a lot to be enthusiastic about right now.

Zone 5

The position of director for zone 5 is vacant as there were no nominations at the recent zone meeting. We are in discussion with Marketing Council regarding the options we have to ensure zone 5 sheep producers are represented. In the interim, please call the office or any other zone director if you have comments, suggestions or questions.
