

Alberta Agriculture put out the following article - focused on cow/calf operations but with some good messages for all livestock producers.

A Conversation in Grazing Planning for Success

Planning before putting animals out is a great start in trying to set-up a successful grazing year and it needs to be monitored, managed and adjusted as the season progresses

http://www1.agric.gov.ab.ca/\$department/newslett.nsf/all/agnw18154